A Return to New Testament Impact

Based on Acts 6:1-7, this message reconnects the leaders with the laser-sharp focus of "prayer and the ministry of the word," resulting in a supernatural movement of evangelism. The content addresses the hindrances of:

1. Reluctant Leadership
2. Rugged Individualism and
3. Radical Self-reliance

Daniel shows pastors how to overcome these hindrances in order to experience extraordinary Spirit-empowered evangelistic impact, as seen in the Acts passage.

10 Myths Pastors Believe About Prayer

Many pastors falter in their efforts to revive their congregations, largely because they embrace faulty thinking. Emerging from Daniel's 25 years of prayer leadership in the pastorate, the common myths are evaluated and dismantled. Recapturing Christ's Vision for His Church

This motivational message casts a vision for "pastor-led, local church-oriented movements of Christ-exalting, worship-based prayer—leading to a full-scale revival, supernatural evangelism and cultural reformation." The Quest for Spirituality and the Search for the Supernatural (How the Church Can Respond to a New Generation with a Movement of Prayer)

Our postmodern culture demonstrates an unprecedented quest for spirituality, coupled with an extreme interest in the experience of the supernatural. Christ's plan is that the church offers the answer and satisfaction to these quests. Yet, in so many cases, congregations fail to experience or offer dynamic spirituality and the experience of the supernatural. The commitment to extraordinary prayer can enable the church to minister with fresh relevance in our culture.

Priorities for Profound Pastoral Influence

The power of “no” is in a stronger “yes.” Since many pastors are defeated and distracted by the unrelenting expectations of the church, it is imperative that every pastor define his “yes” commitments. Daniel suggests and elaborates on five:

- Maintain an exemplary Christian life
- Master the study of the Word of God
- Model a commitment to prayer
- Multiply leadership in the church
- Mobilize the church toward the vision

Pastors will discover new courage and freedom in ministry as a result of this insightful seminar.

Five Stages for Congregational Renewal

Many pastors step into turn-around situations with a desire for congregational renewal, only to see the best laid plans backfire and end in discord and disaster. With a wealth of experience in assuming difficult pastoral situations, Daniel has unique credibility and insight in leading a careful and prayerful turn-around that results in powerful renewal. He proposes a dynamic approach of:

1. Personal Renewal
2. Leadership Renewal
3. Congregational Renewal
4. Mission Renewal and
5. Structural Renewal

Based on decades of pastoral ministry and leading thousands of men in renewal experiences, Daniel is uniquely gifted and qualified to speak to this subject with great clarity and relevance.

Helping Your Husband Win the Battle for Purity (Designed for Women's Conferences)

Most women do not understand the overwhelming battle men face in our pornographic society. Many are deeply hurt, confused and angered by their husband's struggle. Others feel ill-equipped to help their spouse in his effort to remain pure. With a focus on the 40 reasons for men to avoid porn, Daniel helps women chart a positive course for providing encouragement and support.

Confessions of a Kamikaze Pastor (And How I Survived!)

Many pastoral assignments are very difficult and risky, requiring thick skin, a tender heart and the wisdom of Solomon. Twice in his pastoral career, Daniel has followed a moral failure by the previous Sr. Pastor. Between these assignments, he succeeded a 40-year founding pastor. With these unique experiences as part of his ministry resume, Daniel is able to speak with great insight about coping with woundedness, enduring hardship and maintaining joy through tough pastoral seasons.
